The Objects of the Association

The objects of the Association shall be-

- (a) to encourage and facilitate an understanding of the development of the law in Wales, of legal practice in Wales and of the constitutional developments of Wales;
- (b) to encourage and assist professional relationships between members of the Association and other members of the legal profession who have connections with or who are interested in Wales;
- (c) to assist the development of the legal profession in or relating to Wales by any appropriate means, including mutual exchanges, placement and training programmes, the supply of information and equipment, or holding lectures and seminars;
- (d) to participate in consultation exercises and to respond to them if required to do so;
- (e) to join any other organisation membership of which is conducive to the attainment of any of the foregoing objects;
- (f) to make representations in connection with any matter relating to the foregoing objects.
